Uncompromising Attitude of Mine Owners Blamed by Densmore.

STRUGGLE TO BITTER END

Rock That Split Negotiations Is Question of Recognition of Union.

Houghton, Mich., January 3 .- Efforts so announced after a final effort to indignation against the companies.

This was rejected by the companies.

The employing interests suggested to Mr. Densmore that a secret vote of the men on strike, if properly safe-guarded, would show a majority of them in favor of returning to work outside the union fold. When this was broached to the federation men there was an immediate refusal to subthere was an immediate retusal to sub-mit the case be such test. Results of the negotiations were whred to the Secretary of Labor by Mr. Densmore te-night. He said he would make a full report of his efforts after his re-turn to Washington. He has set his departure for to-morrow night. Statements by mine managers took practically the same grounds for reive heads of the Calumet and Hecla "It was simply a case of asking us to Company.

"It was simply a case of asking us to burden ourselves with an organization, whose history is one of violence," said F. W. Denton, of the Copper Range Consolidated Company. "The proposals that reached us were mere subterfuges, did not go to the merits of the question, and sought to force us to recognize indirectly an organization with which we will have nothing to do and have never treated.

"As a matter of fact, we have already settled this strike. The men now working for us are entitled to every possible consideration, and it would have been rank ingratitude for the companies to have promised them our protection and then asked them to labor alongside members of the Western Federation. There is no doubt that constant trouble would have resulted between the men. This was a condition which we could not and would not overlook.

Elimination Necessary.

"Then, too, anything less than climination of the Western Federation from the district would have meant that within five years, if not sooner, we should have had all the work to do over again. There was no doubt in our minds that the first work of the federation members left in the mines would be to spread a propaganda of discontent, follow it up with a series of unreasonable demands, and then start another strike.

"From every consideration of humanity to our level consideration of his intention to visit a London being the first through the Lord Chamberlain, the first work of the federation from the first work of the federation from the first work of the federation from the film campaign.

Lendon, January 3.—Although King George and Queen Mary preserved outward indifference during the recent carefully organized and highly expensive suffragist demonstration at Covent Garden Opera House, they are deeply annoyed at such an event having taken place.

It has always been an unwritten law at centre that whenever either the King or Queen proposes to pay any but a state visit to either the theatre or the opera, the fact should not be previously announced, eince their Majestles are always anxious to avoid anything in the nature of a demonstration, even of loyalty.

His Majesty has now made it clear to those about him that if any similar announcement of his intention to visit a Landon theatre be made without his express authority, the ongagement will be canceled at once. The him is to be conveyed to the proper quarters through the Lord Chamberlain's depart.

Originally the grand duke wished to produce his play publicly, but the Holy Synod objected. The Czar, however, determined to see it, and arranged a production at his theatre in the presence only of the imperial family and its most intimate friends. The grand duke will act the principal part, and the other roles will be played by nobles of the highest rank and members of St. Petersburg society.

WARBLING LAIRD OUT WITH A TEST SHOW

London, January 3 .- Maclaine, of Lochbuie, the Scotish Laird, who not long since sang comic songs in New York at a princely salary, has just concluded a tour in his native Highlands with a music hall company, which in England is called a "fit-up rhow," playing in tents, at village balls and all sorts of holes and corners. The venture was a financial failure but appears to have afforded the young Laird much amusement. He was ac companied and stage managed by his sister, Mrs. Moritz, wife of a Manchester doctor, who now entertains her friends when she lunches or dines out It giving imitations of the music hall artists with whom she had to mix.

Maclaine is a godson of the Duke of Argylle, and a bosom friend of Prince Alexander, of Battenburg. He looks forward to returning to America short-ly and replenishing the family coffers. He does not consider he did himself justice on his first appearance in New York, as he was so nervous.
